

Centre of SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES

Seminar Programme: Lent Term 2016

The South Asian Studies Seminar meets on Wednesdays at 5 pm in Seminar Room SG1, Alison Richard Building, 7 West Road, Cambridge, CB3 9DT. The seminar provides an opportunity to study South and Southeast Asia from a wide variety of disciplines within the humanities and social sciences.

- 13 January      Professor Edward Simpson (School of Oriental and African Studies)
The Indian village: from Marx to Modi
- 20 January      Dr Yaqoob Khan Bangash (Information Technology University, Lahore)
Consolidating a State: Pakistan's integration of the Princely States, 1947-56
- 27 January      Edward Anderson (Centre of South Asian Studies, University of Cambridge)
Hindu nationalist training camps and the Indian diaspora
- 3 February      Dr Stephen Legg (University of Nottingham)
The space of the mohalla: from Congress to communal geographies in interwar Delhi
- 10 February      Professor Ruth Vanita (University of Montana)
The water of Delhi: pre-colonial modernity in Urdu poetry
- 17 February      Professor Dr Laurent Gayer (CNRS/CERI-Sciences Po, Paris)
Peacecraft: living with religious diversity in Amroha (India)
- 24 February      Dr Tim Harper (University of Cambridge)
The Gordon Johnson Seminar:
K C Banerjee, 'world-tourist': radical internationalism in late-colonial Asia
- 2 March          Dr Sudeshna Guha (Shiv Nadar University, India)
Looking into 'Indian' pasts: archaeology, histories and ways of seeing
- 9 March          Dr Anastasia Piliavsky (University of Cambridge)
Hierarchy, democracy and political responsibility in northern India

