

Cambridge Postgraduate Open Day

Friday 1 November 2019

The University of Cambridge, alongside the Cambridge departments and Colleges, invite you to the Cambridge Postgraduate Open Day on Friday 1 November 2019. The day is open to all those seeking to apply for postgraduate study at the University and will provide opportunities to meet department staff, explore the Colleges and find out more about the application process, research proposals and funding opportunities.

During the morning of the event, you will be able to visit the Colleges, and speak with current postgraduate students to find out about student life in the vibrant city of Cambridge. In the afternoon, prospective applicants will have the chance to learn more about individual courses by talking to academic staff and by visiting departments. We will also offer a central Exhibition Hub where detailed information about the application process is available, with Graduate Admissions Office staff on hand to answer questions about postgraduate study at Cambridge. In addition, the Exhibition Hub will provide further opportunities to talk to department staff and postgraduate students to find out about the hundreds of postgraduate courses offered by the University of Cambridge.

For those of you who are new to Cambridge, the Postgraduate Open Day is an opportunity to find out more about the University, departments and Colleges, enabling you to get a feel for our wide-ranging postgraduate community as well as having the opportunity to meet staff and interact with current students. Bookings for the Postgraduate Open Day will open in August. If you would like to be kept up-to-date about when bookings open for the Postgraduate Open Day 2019, you may wish to sign up to our mailing list on our Postgraduate Open Day page. If you have any queries about the Postgraduate Open Day 2019, please do get in touch at CAOEvents@admin.cam.ac.uk.

We look forward to meeting you on the day!
